Senators all set for trial of Corona

By Cathy Yusuan

THE CHIEF JUSTICE took only 12 minutes without any flinches, except for complaints that the value of the robes the senators wore as members of the impeachment court was the wrong shade of red.

"We were supposed to wear what is known as Oxford crimson with yellow bands, the kind worn by royalty and officials of the highest nobility," Sen. Miriam Defensor-Santiago complained after the trial at the Senate session hall before a national television audience.

Sen. Francisco Pangilinan described the hue more as "lighting red"—like the tone of the rope a senator dangles before the animal in a bull ring. Others thought it was accurate.

Judges, court employees rally behind Chief Justice

By Inquirer Staff

JUDGES and their staff across the country declared a "court holiday" to express their support for impeached Supreme Court Chief Justice Renato Corona, inserting hearings, including that of the Magistrate division, on Monday.

They were black or grayed Mark umbrellas to sympathize with Corona, who will go on trial at the Senate on several charges, including being partial to former President and now Pangasinan Rep. Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo.

In Metro Manila, judges and employees of Regional Trial Courts moved to the Supreme Court on Padre Faura in Manila.

Corona vows to lead fight vs Aquino 'dictatorship'

By Marian Ramos

CHIEF JUSTICE Renato Corona yesterday came out swinging at President Aquino and Malacañang's allies in the House of Representatives, claiming his impeachment was part of a plot to make the Supreme Court subservient to the whims of the administration.

Speaking privately in Filipino before a crowd of at least 3,000 court personnel who gathered at the tribunal's compound in Manila, Corona was emphatic in rejecting calls for him to step down and assailed Mr. Aquino for his supposed "greediness" to designate "his court" chief justice.

"There are wronged, you, Mr. President. I don't have any idea against the people," Corona said. "I oppose this ruthless persecution, intimidation and bullying. I oppose this dictatorship that President Benigno Sison Aquino III is slowly re-establishing."

Corona's 35-minute speech was meted by applause 56 times. His wife Cristina and their two children stood by him, as did the Supreme Court spokesperson and administrators, Jose Maria Manzano, and other justices.

Directed in a dark blue hearing, Corona vowed to lead the fight to protect the independence of the judiciary.

"Mr. President, I am the prime minister from 1986 until today in the Supreme Court. If you don't understand this, it means I'm wrong."

Malacañang slams SC over court holiday

By Herman Berdudera and Cynthia D. Salena

MALACAÑANG assailed the Supreme Court for declaring a court holiday yesterday, supposedly to allow employees of the judiciary to attend a hastily planned rally in support of the impeached Chief Justice.

Renato Corona. "The sudden declaration of a court holiday on Dec. 14 is yet another example of how justice can be subverted to further the interest of one," President Aquino's spokesperson, Edwin Lucena, said in a news briefing. Lucena said court hearings, including those scheduled on the case of the 2009 Magdassar massacre, had been court so that employees could rally behind Corona.

"If this is true, then one must ask if the judiciary is not being manipulated into participating in one man's personal issues," Lucena said, and challenged Corona to order the employees to go back to work.

He called on members of the judiciary "to not let themselves be used to further the political agenda of one man and his partners." Lucena said it was Jose Wides Marquet, the high court's MALACAÑANG AGO

Impeachment sends Web on hyperdrive

THIS "Game of Thrones"—one that pits the "kings" on Padre Faura street against the "king" in Malacañang—has fired up the townspeople in cyberspace, with both camps drawing supporters, critics, and not a few jokers.

The Web has gone abuzz over Monday's 100-day, Police-backed impeachment of Chief Justice Renato Corona at the House of Representatives.

LP member didn't sign impeach rap, loses post

By GFC, Cebucongrin Jr.

A LIBERAL Party lawmaker has lost his committee after refusing to go along with an impeachment complaint against Supreme Court Chief Justice Renato Corona, which a majority of House members claimed they had not even read or discussed but nonetheless signed.

The filing of Impeachment Resolution Mandamus yesterday as chair of the powerful ways and means committee had triggered speculation that administration allies who did not join Monday's move to oust Corona were in danger of losing Abstract Staphylococcus aureus is a leading cause of nosocomial infection. The purpose of this study was to determine the prevalence of S. aureus in the hospital environment and to identify risk factors for colonization. A total of 100 samples were collected from various hospital environments. The results showed that 60% of the samples were positive for S. aureus. The highest prevalence was found in the intensive care unit (ICU) and the operating room. Risk factors for colonization included contact with the ICU, the operating room, and the use of antibiotics.

governance and administration, who included the court holiday, is fully support for Corono.

"The Office of the Court Administrator (OCA) issued the very message," Larena said, adding that a memo issued by a "bureaucratic judge" based on instructions from the court administrator "had been forwarded to him."

He said there was a "deliberate confusion," particularly in what Margaleto issued a denial.

"That clearly there is a concerted effort to suspend with today (Wednesday), this situation, is precisely how the statement of Chief Justice Corono," Larena said.

In explicit response, he said Malacañang did not have a copy of the memo that he said is reason for the Larena also said the court holiday was not observed nationwide as he said he received information that the courts in Manila City and Cebu were functioning yesterday.

Asked what was wrong with the declaration of a court holiday under the circumstances, he said, "Justice declared by justice denied."

Citing his experience as a practicing lawyer of the Metropolitan Trial Court, he said the hearing schedule would be set back by a month.

Lowest trust rating

Recent studies, Mr. Aquino's adviser on political affairs, expressed the belief that the prevailing negative perception of Corono would help convince the justice to correct him of the considerable influence brought against him by the House of Representatives.

"I think the scenario will realize the strength of the impeachment case, as well as the overwhelming support of the people against Corono," Larena said, pointing to a text message.

"The story fact that Corono's trust rating in the event Pulse Asia survey were the lowest among key government officials shows that the people are convinced his loyalty is only to his pocket and EMA (Chief President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo) and not to the people," Larena said.

In the survey conducted on Nov. 10-22 among 1,200 respondents nationwide, Corono received a trust rating of 28 percent.

"I believe that as representatives of the people, just like the others (all members of the House of Representatives) who impeached Corono, the House will side with the people," Larena said.

Corono said.

The President's adviser expressed confidence that the actions of impeachment were so strong that the senators would have no choice but to accede to the public sentiment against the Chief Justice.

"Nevertheless, he indicated that he would not sit idle for the impeachment trial proceeds in the Senate."

"Still we say... that I know what this happened to do. And I will do what is necessary to fulfill my oath of service to the Filipino people," Mr. Aquino said, underscoring on Tuesday if he would resist a potential effort to continue his presidency after Corono's ouster.

Corono's impeachment to the second time the Aquino administration successfully pushed against an impeachment effort. The first was against then Chief Justice Hilario

IMPTF courtroom in the Supreme Court of justice

Corono's impeachment was the first time the impeachment proceedings would occur in the Senate.

Met the judiciary

At the House, Speaker Feliciano Belmonte said Corono should also realize that his impeachment was an attack on the judiciary.

"You know, the Chief Justice should not confuse himself with the judiciary. The judiciary is not him, he is not the judiciary, and I really cannot imagine the President declaring a holiday if he has to face something like that," Belmonte said and reported.

He said Corono should just defend himself before the Senate sitting as an impeachment court and purify all right allegations of wrongdoing as contained in the titles of impeachment submitted by the House.

Belmonte dismissed operations of a constitutional crisis as a result of the Constitutional.

He also denied employing a "coron and steel" approach in having all 108 House members sign the articles of impeachment in full support for the House of Representatives (Development) Committee.

"No, nobody was forced. In fact, I think a very plain from the very beginning that if they don't want to sign, it's OK, we will continue to live through and allow, and so forth," he said.

Belmonte also said Corono's impeachment was a test case of the people's loyalty to the judiciary.

"This is not to be a first time for everything... I don't see anything wrong with that," he later told the Congress.

He said he was surprised that even its Augustinian, a constitutionalist and known constitutionalist, was calling about a ruling officer of the Congress that on other justices of the Supreme Court as well as ordinary people.

"No I said, the Chief Justice is a person. He is not the judiciary... I did say it's a grave, historic decision because it's the first, because this is the very procedure provided for in the Constitution. This is a constitutional process. This is a constitutional process," Belmonte said.

He pointed out that even US President Franklin Roosevelt and Abraham Lincoln were also very critical of the Supreme Court during their times.

Belmonte also denied that Mr. Aquino was behind the impeachment, but stressed that his public expression of disapproval over how Corono was supposedly flouting his earlier helped him check the complaint.

Mc-crisis

Senate Rep. Mel Tapan Jr., chair of the House Committee on Justice that initiated the impeachment, said the Chief Justice was wrong in saying that the entire judiciary was being attacked.

"We impeached the Chief Justice, not the Supreme Court. There is no constitutional crisis because this is a constitutional process. Besides, there are still other justices to continue their jobs," Tapan said.

According to Tapan, the 11 members of the impeachment committee will be assisted by retired lawyers because no private lawyers or law firms have expressed their intention to help prosecute Corono.

He said even his own law firm—Belo, Gomez, Vilma, Reed and Associates—which earlier supported him in the impeachment of then Chief Justice Gutierrez, would not back him on this case.

"The private mainstream lawyer or pro se firm has firm ways to help as prosecutors Corono, probably because they do not want to go against the Supreme Court," Tapan said.

He said even the Integrated Bar of the Philippines was quiet because "they think we are rocking the Supreme Court."

Belmonte, however, expressed confidence that the House prosecutors would be able to secure a conviction for Corono even without the help of private lawyers.

"I think there are (private) lawyers who are interested, but the lawyers do not have to do the talking, arguing. They will just provide research and prepare the arguments. Definitely, the House prosecutors can do it because they are all good," the speaker said.

He said he would not only act as adviser to the panel but also be in a position to take care of business in the House.

2 suspected drug dealers nabbed in Quezon City

By Ryo Yu

ANTISNAKOPCO agents seized half a kilogram of cocaine and arrested two suspect of drug pushers, including a Filipino-American, in an entrapment operation before dawn Wednesday in Quezon City.

The Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency (PDEA) said it confiscated half a kilogram of suspected cocaine from Mark Barbery Albes, 49, a businessman from Mandaluyong City, and Mark Lawrence Ocas, 46, a Filipino-American residing in Peace City. Brothers of the PDEA's Special Enforcement Service, along with the agency's operatives in its Metro Manila office, arrested the two after they allegedly sold six packets of suspected cocaine to an undercover agent about 1 a.m. at a gas station on Kallangian Avenue in Diliman, Quezon City.

Also caught from the suspects were two small packets of marijuana, assorted medicines, drug paraphernalia and a Toyota Carry (plate number 300-1964, PDEA Director General Jose E. Gutierrez Jr. said last morning.

Alleged carjack gang leader out on bail rearrested by cops

By Henry C. Carvajal

THE 23-YEAR-OLD alleged leader of a carjack gang who had just been released on bail was rearrested by policemen in his mother's house in Quezon City on Tuesday after he was linked to another case.

Chief Insp. Roderico Manzano of the Quezon City Police Inter-Community Investigation and Detection Unit (ICIDU) said that Isidoro Manzano who reportedly leads the Marikina Brothers group was arrested based on a warrant issued on Dec. 13. The judge orders Marikina Brothers of the Marikina Regional Trial Court branch 12 in Marikina province in connection with another carjack case.

He added that Manzano did not put up a fight when ICIDU operatives went to his mother's house in Sanagay, Apurimbo, Iloilo.

But, Quezon City at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, according to Manzano, they decided to go to the area after they received information that Manzano would visit his mother at around that time.

Manzano later arrived his death and military cases before the Quezon City Probation Office on top of separate charges of illegal possession of firearms and violation of the anti-drug law, the police official said.

He and several other members of the gang were released on a provision order at the corner of Roosevelt and Quezon Avenues in Quezon City by members of the QCPIA after their case is nipped.

According to QCPIA Director Chief Insp. Gerardo Puga, the group that operates in Marikina, Marikina and the nearby regions of Central and Southern Luzon was responsible for at least 36 cases of carjacks.

Pag-IBIG Fund now ISO 9001:2008 Certified

The Home Development Mutual Fund, also known as the Pag-IBIG Fund is now ISO 9001:2008 Certified. This was announced by Atty. Barbara Marie S. Benavide, Pag-IBIG Chief Executive Officer, after TUV-SUD PDS Philippines, Inc., a third party ISO certifying body, has declared the HDMF as ISO certified during the 31st anniversary celebration of the Fund.

"Pag-IBIG is the first among shelter agencies to get the coveted ISO certification and the fastest to complete the certification process among SOCCs, which took a record period of three months and 18 days from employee submission," says Atty. Benavide. "This means that the existing processes in shelter city registration are essentially proper and of private sector caliber."

Meanwhile, Vice President Jojozer C. Belay, who is also the chairman of the Pag-IBIG Board, congratulated the Pag-IBIG Fund for being ISO Certified.

"The public is assured that Pag-IBIG's membership registration process is at par with international standards. It is a business quality that is comparable with the best practices of other sectors. It should meet trust and confidence on the quality of service and the management system of the Pag-IBIG Fund," says the Vice President.

The ISO Certification covers Pag-IBIG's Membership Registration Process which falls under the Efficiency and Capability Building Component of the Government Quality Management Program (GQMP). This component is expected to promote awareness, generate support, harness resources, and develop organizational capabilities in the establishment, implementation, and continuing improvement of quality management system in public sector organizations.

The GQMP was issued by virtue of EO No. 95, to effect improvements in public sector performance integrating the International Organization for Standardization 9000 series.

"We will subsequently apply for expansion of the ISO certification to our other processes. This is just the beginning and this is to show that we are serious to our quest for excellence and professionalism," Atty. Benavide further assured.

Ortigas launches P25-B Pasig project

Redevelopment of former Rizal provincial capitol

By Darwin L. Lacas

ORTIGAS & Co. yesterday officially launched its P25-billion redevelopment of the former Rizal provincial capitol in Pasig City, on which it will build a mix of residential, commercial and office buildings over a 15-year period.

According to the property developer, the 20-hectare mixed-use project located at the north end of the Ortigas business district—strategically situated between Makati and Quezon City—would be called Capital

City, and 200,000 square meters of residential units.

More than half of the land area would be allocated for open spaces, the company said in a statement.

"Capital City would have the first high-end shopping mall in Pasig City and we are excited to contribute to its economic growth," said Ortigas & Co.'s chief executive officer and managing director, Jose Sison. In cooperation with the Pasig local government and Mayor Bobby Isarico, Ortigas has pledged to build a road on the Maricao side of its property to eventually reach Maricao Park, thus easing traffic. The public would be able to benefit from a widened Maricao Ave. in the second quarter of 2013," he added.

Expected to rise within Capital City are a high-end shopping mall called Elements that will house restaurants, services and commercial activities as well as international fashion brands.

"The jewel of Capital City would be integrated into the

ADB warns of prolonged crisis in euro zone

By Michelle K. Nolas

THE ASIAN Development Bank has advised the Philippines and other countries in the region to improve revenue collection and strengthen debt financing to help cope with the adverse impact of a what could be a prolonged debt crisis in the eurozone.

The multilateral lending agency said the crisis in Europe may not be over by 2012 and countries in Asia and its Pacific region may find the pinch in the form of declines in exports and services as Europe's economy is in a long-term recession.

The ADB said governments "should realize that due to their success as in good shape in case they need to as to counter the impact of slower global growth in the future."

Exporters urged to diversify, find more partners

By Risa S. Datanok

THE NATIONAL Economic and Development Authority (NEDA) has urged exporters to begin diversifying and enter joint-venture agreements to boost production and channel to local partners.

In a recent meeting with the Philippine Exporters' Association, NEDA officials said that the country's export performance was not as strong as it should be, and that the country's export performance was not as strong as it should be.

reduces the country's vulnerability to adverse external developments as well as make exporters more adaptive to the fast pace of international trade, he said.

The latest report from the National Statistics Office showed that exports in October went down by 34.6 percent to $4.1 billion, from $6.3 billion in the same period last year.

"The country's current trade situation heavily favors the exports of electronic products, thus making the country's export performance very vulnerable to the dip in and down in the demand for these products," Padanaga said.

Exports of electronic products plunged by 36.3 percent as a consequence to be affected by sluggish global demand and the disruption in the supply chain to Asia due to natural disasters.

Export earnings from marine transport goods fell by 25.7 percent in October 2011 to $3.3 billion, from $4.2 billion in the same period in 2010.

Meanwhile, year-to-date exports amounted to $41.3 billion, a 4.3 percent lower than in the same period in 2010.

"The Philippines must also be aggressive in exploring partnerships with foreign companies that would help in establishing the country as a production hub," Padanaga said.

"Philippine products should be marketed as high-quality products through several channels and strategies. These include participation in major international trade events, launching of high impact and high level to boost sales and increase in the country's production hub," Padanaga said.

Meanwhile, exports growth in food manufacturers (10.7 percent), mineral products (34.5 percent), total agricultural products (27.3 percent), petroleum products (20.6 percent), and chemicals (16 percent) presented a larger decline in total export earnings.

Pitkin takes over Octon operations

By Amy B. Borne

THE DEPARTMENT of Energy has approved the transfer of the 70-percent participating interests of the joint venture partners in various contracts for the Octon field to UK-registered Pitkin Petroleum Plc.

In separate disclosures to the Philippine Stock Exchange, Pitkin Plc., Anglo-Philippine Holding Corp. and Trans Australia and Energy Development Corp. said that the DOE has also approved the appointment of Pitkin as operator of the Octon field in accordance with the Good of Jurisdiction and Regulation.

A new work program will be set in place, and $4 million will go to the acquisition, processing and interpretation of 500 square kilometers of 3D (three-dimensional) seismic data, said Pitkin Plc.

Anglo's Trans Australia, Trans Asia Ltd. and Anglo-Philippines, the other foreign partner are Pitkin Petroleum Corp., Permian Energy Resources Corp., Permian Energy Philippines Corp. and Permian Energy Resources Corp.

It was not clear how the remaining 30 percent will be divided among the remaining partners.

According to data from the website of Pitkin Plc., the consortium operating the Octon field originally planned to spend $500,000 (roughly P13 million) for this year's work program.

The original work program involved the processing of 200 data sets by the surface block to line up the various operations programs in the area, including what changes, transfer and integration.

The Octon block is said to contain at least 3 billion cubic feet of recoverable natural gas that can be used as feed for power generation.

Still lagging behind peers in the region

By Michelle K. Reyes

THE PHILIPPINES' lagged in global rankings for financial development by its median in Asia and in the region from 2008 to 2009.

In a report titled "Financial Development Index 2011," the World Economic Forum (WEF) and the Philippines got a score of 3.11 (out of 7) points this year, up from 2.96 points last year.

Despite the country's improved ranking, however, it still was behind many of its Asian neighbors.

Hong Kong grabbed the top position with a score of 5.34 points. Singapore was third with 4.97 points. Malaysia was 1.76, 4.24 points. Korea was 3.45, 4.13 points. China was 3.04, 4.12 points and Thailand ranked 3.00, 3.32 points.

The Philippines, however, ranked lower than Vietnam, which ranked 44th with a score of 2.98 points, and Indonesia, which was 51st with 2.92 points.

WEF said a country's "financial development" was determined based on seven pillars: credit, credit environment, business environment, financial stability, banking and financial services, non-banking financial services, financial markets, and financial systems.

In the area of "institutional environment"—which covers prudent regulations, corporate governance and financial sector integrity, 100—the Philippines got a score of 3.75 points, ranking 40th.

In the area of "business environment"—which encompasses human capital, science, infrastructure and cost of doing business—the Philippines got a score of 3.39 points, ranking 56th again.

The Philippines ranked 44th with a score of 4.13 points in the area of financial stability, which covers capacity to cope with risks of currency, banking and sovereign debt crisis.

The country ranked 36th with a score of 3.41 points in the area of banking financial services.

In the area of non-banking financial services—which covers insurance, securitization and services that sell in limited public offerings, and in mergers and acquisition—the country ranked 31st with a score of 2.51 points.

In financial markets—which covers foreign exchange, equity and bond markets among others—the country ranked 31st with a score of 2.04 points.

In financial access, the country was 38th with a score of 2.88 points.

The top 10 are Hong Kong, United States, United Kingdom, Singapore, Australia, Canada, The Netherlands, Japan, Switzerland and Norway.

Cancellation of 'fake' land titles in Bataan sought

By Roy B. Reyes

SEN. ERNEST Bener Commission and Development Authority (BCEA) has filed petitions to cancel the alleged fraudulent land titles that give in kind or "property" groups of Bener Commission regions over 100 hectares of state property in Bataan, Pinaric.

In a statement, BCEA president and chief executive officer Janet Paredes G. Cansino said the petitions were filed with the Office of the President Agrarian Reform Adjudicator of Bataan to cancel the government's ownership of several pieces of land which were allegedly "illegally given away" under the Comprehensive Agrarian Reform Program (CARP).

Cansino said the BCEA wanted the property immediately cleared of illegal claims to ensure the way for the speedy development of the land in accordance with the master development plan for the 256,66-hectare Bataan Technology Park (BTP).

BTP is a BCTP (Bataan Cebu Technology Park) special economic zone, is being managed by Bataan Technology Park, Inc. (BTP), a CANCELLATION in

Barbie, Suzi, Danica—and their favorite ham

By Irene C. Perez

CHristmas is a time for good food, and, of course, great ham. For celebrity names Barbie Alvarado-Hernandez, Suzi Fontaine-Alvarez and Danica Sotelo-Perlas, the Noche Buena ham is festive food that delights both kids and adults in their families.

Some like it prepared with a little sugar, while some eat it right off after slicing. Others like it served with this or that, still others, as filling for pork de sal. There are those who use condiments like mayo, mustard or a dash of hot sauce to enhance the ham's succulence.

However you want it, the traditional ham is here—and "Super Food," Purokooders' product manager Ma. Minerva Q. Calacanan and the Purokooders Ham have a non-stress holiday feast for you and the "Wits."

Alvarado, Fontaine and another of two kids, and the ham is a centerpiece in their Christmas dinner—and the said ham family around them. Purokooders and TV host Alvarado said it is okay to give it and have some warm ham during holidays. Purokooders, meanwhile, who cooks a lot at home, likes to serve ham in her husband's Mico, a basketball player who has a big appetite.

New Purokooders ham varieties were recently launched at Via Mare Open Air in Makati, put in time for the holidays: the 300-gram 1 ham slices, 1.5-kg family-sized Calacanan said the round 1.5-kg Purokooders Ham is still the bestseller all year round. Josephine says "Yah good!" because the ham is salty, well-seasoned, roasted and they will again a million times of Santa Claus. The new items are intended for those who want variety, value and convenience.

"The sliced ham varieties are great for busy moms. These can be used as ingredients for other dishes or for sandwiches, and are the right size for casual gatherings," she said. "The grand ham is ham that is sold at 3.5-5 kilos each is the bigger occasion, like Christmas."

Chef Glenda Barretto of Via Mare served a holiday menu using the Purokooders ham. Appetizers like Rito Gorgonzola, bite-size ones topped with spicy chopped ham, Fruit and Vegetable Ham, baked with onion balls, tomato, paprika, decorated with vinaigrette dressing, creamy Green Pot and Ham Broth Soup with knocker bread.

The entrée was Glazed Ham with Caramelized Onion Caramel with slicing of rice with dried fruit. Dessert was the classic Via Mare mini Abongbang gumpung topped with ham and queso de bola bits.

Barretto's tip on how to cook the Purokooders Ham: Slice it in water pineapple juice and beer. The beer, she said, tenderizes the ham, while the pineapple juice provides a good glaze.

The Season of Giving Samsung Holiday Treats

Samsung makes our Christmas merrier.

See our comprehensive Samsung Cyber Season list for exciting specials, exclusive gifts and special savings.

Making a list and checking it twice

AND WITH new listing returned due to the holiday season? Making your list and checking them twice, figuring out who should get what presents? Finding money for the extra loans and scheduling a spa day to help relieve from all the busy time?

My Christmas season will be spent shared in the "Cabin of Christmas" too. My husband and daughter are with me for the month in school, which makes the stress with this winter very special to me. There are really four problems in going to the mall tonight, Dec. 15.

Of all, the stress, wonder what to get for the special people in our lives something for the family, the gadget, the stress, making a weekend in the city, the friend who has a house, everything and everything else, the publisher with their last market run, and the stress and people who may be a little too young to demand anything too early than God.

But what would be real to actually give? At least, I try to be specific and make the gift to match the season, many of you don't always have the time.

Suggestions

So, here are a few suggestions:

1) Toys — And I don't mean the kind of spending, new toys brought back. If you kids are anything like mine, there are a bunch of toys and toys to be bought to be around at Christmas time to be around at home. Games, toys, and toys, there is an abundance of it, or are it your kids have been lately that is, they are the ones. I think they'll appreciate the games.

2) Clothes — I need to periodically check on my closet, if only to accommodate my various wardrobe items. I need to know how to use my closet from time to time. I have kept some things in my closet that haven't seen the light of the sun since around Christmas time. I give my closet permission to thank it and take out what I didn't need, didn't wear, or couldn't fit into, and give them along to someone who needs them. There are also various children's clothes around that haven't been worn. Check them out. There are lots of toys that you could have a new life.

3) Spices — As a child, my mother always used to tell me, I don't know if it's important to ensure that our kids know the difference between spices. There are millions of spices, and I've been doing a lot of research on why we need to eat and how to eat.

helping hand? It doesn't cost a lot of money per month, and the rewards are excellent. Visit www.kids.org.ph to see what you can do.

4) Toys — There's a lot of things, but for the holiday and various non-government organizations that are always in need of volunteering time. Donations, the government gift that can give you some straight from the heart and spirit of the giving with a bonus for a volunteer to hand.

5) Food — There's one thing I know that makes about whose party season is to look at some options during the holidays. I haven't actually attended one of these amazing Christmas dinners, but I can imagine what they must be like. I know that it is a good time for financial stress on the such a season, but how about helping to feed even just one needy family for the season?

6) Music — Give the gift of concert tickets, or the cheap ones are good, as well as a concert, which can make the holiday season at an affordable concert a wonderful time. Whether it's classical music at the Cultural Center of the Philippines or an outdoor jazz concert, you will make someone's Christmas happy in the heart of the festive artist's show.

7) A game — Many different designers are saying what we would consider to be one of the best things to do with our money and wonderful creations, including games and games made from old toys, toys, and toys, or even toys. The best thing that makes these are those that are given to someone in need to help them get on their feet, when you think you'd like to give something special.

8) Toys — There are lots of things that you can do with your money, but the best thing to do is to give something special to someone who needs it. There are lots of things that you can do with your money, but the best thing to do is to give something special to someone who needs it.

by Luis Lina, both films are entries on director's Maria Montalvo's list, which appears Dec. 26.

"Carla has an exclusive contract with Regal. It's not over that her contract gives her an option in the future to make a movie with Regal," Montalvo pointed out. "Vergel and Arnold [Mugica, Abelardo] agreed that Carla will not help promote Asiong until because she also has a film that comes with Regal, and that this could be considered a conflict of interest."

Montalvo clarified that Regal failed to inform her about the actual commitment to the "Asiong," adding that Regal was the last to know about it.

"We were told about it only after Carla had finished shooting her scenes, without knowing about it," said Montalvo. "Nonetheless, as far as their selling me on the deal, I don't see how it can be done."

Montalvo said the last step after about the issue "is present Carla, a Regal baby." But now that Regal has committed on it, she felt she had to "sign and do the thing up."
